

NEPTUNE PACIFIC LINE

Marine Manager

The Role: Neptune Pacific Line's Ship Management Team is responsible for ensuring the safe, reliable and compliant operation of our fleet of container, general cargo and other managed vessels operating primarily in the Asia Pacific region, including New Zealand and Australia. We strive to continuously improve our ship management activities, with an overarching goal of being a "best in class" ship manager. Working in a complex, ever-changing environment we work hard to stay ahead of the pack. To help us achieve this, we are seeking a Marine Manager to lead our Auckland, New Zealand based Ship Management Team. In addition to leading the Ship Management team, the Marine Manager will join Neptune's Senior Management Team and support other areas of the businesses growth as required

Here's what you'll do:

- Management responsibility for the safe, reliable and compliant operation of all our owned and managed vessels.
- Responsible for all marine and technical compliance matters, including ensuring the vessels meet and exceed all relevant national, regional and international standards and regulations always
- Responsible for maintaining and improving strong, trusting relationships with regulators and other relevant bodies, including flag administrations, port state authorities, class societies and any other bodies which may impact the operation of our vessels
- Responsible for all Ship Management OPEX budgets, including preparing and presenting annual running cost budgets, as well as monitoring and reporting on progress
- Responsible for the budgeting, planning and delivery of all dockings and other major marine capital expenditure projects.
- Responsible for all Health, Safety, Quality and Environmental matters in relation to our ships and ship management activities
- Responsible for ensuring that our ships are properly manned with skilled, qualified personnel
- Provide guidance and support to our seagoing personnel and manage the framework for their professional development
- Responsible for all bunkering activities, including development of supply lines, arrangement of necessary stems, control and monitoring of the fleet-wide bunker budget, monitoring and reporting on bunkering trends, preparation for the implementation of IMO2020 compliant fuels
- Support the development of the fleet, through identification and assessment of target vessels
- Represents Neptune in all matters relating to Ship Management, including at industry bodies
- Management and owner of internal SMS - NVOS (Neptune Vessel Operating System)

Here's what you'll bring to the table:

- Significant experience in ship management at a senior level in a similar setting
- Significant and relevant seagoing experience
- It is essential you have further education in business, law or similar field
- Strong demonstrable knowledge of relevant marine regulatory frameworks
- Demonstrable experience managing and developing relationships with marine regulators
- Demonstrable experience preparing, managing and reporting on running cost and capex budgets
- Demonstrable experience managing and improving HSQE in a marine environment
- Demonstrable experience successfully delivering large marine projects (dockings, constructions, modifications)
- Demonstrable leadership experience in respect of seagoing and shore-based personnel
- Demonstrable experience effectively responding to and addressing unplanned or emergency events in a marine context
- Highly developed interpersonal, verbal and written communication skills
- Experience managing seagoing personnel and leading collaborative teams
- Very strong conceptual, logical and strategic thinking
- Natural leader with a high level of initiative, motivation and drive to succeed
- Demonstrated passion for making a difference
- Strong leader in problem-solving, idea generation and creative solutions
- Strong organizational skills
- Love for travel, frequent travel is a MUST!

If you are a natural leader with significant ship management experience looking for a new challenge, we would love to hear from you.

Head over to seek and apply now! www.seek.co.nz/job/39576871

APPLICATIONS CLOSE: August 30, 2019